Pastor's Desk

Greetings, and may God bless you today.

A thought! “The strongest fish are those who spend a lot of time swimming upstream against the current”. Life seems to have a lot of current, and often we find ourselves swimming against it. These are times when we can draw into God and find His strength to keep on going. Our character and resilience is built in such times. Scott M Peck begins his book, The road less travelled with “Life is difficult”. And don't we know it. Yet, overcoming and moving forward fruitfully, even though it is hard, brings the greatest and most satisfying rewards.

May God grant us His strength and wisdom today to live strong even when swimming against the flow.

Blessings, Pr Greg
